OLD BUSINESS

Update on Eastbay, Northbay, Futures Meeting

Team play is starting soon but players for B range and C&D are still needed for Eastbay. Team clothes have arrived and are in the pro shop. It was requested that a match play rule seminar be scheduled. Sharon Murray will teach and it will be scheduled for Tuesday, April 13 after golf.

Gold Cup

Scheduled for September 15 this year.

Golf Committee Update

Per Sharon Geis, the committee will not budge on their decision to eliminate outside play on Fridays.

NEW BUSINESS

Invitational Bank Account

A motion was made, duly seconded and passed to add the following signers to the invitational account: Diane Thompson, Julie Osborn and Loretta Mcinnis.

Invitational

Wine is being donated,, raffle prizes are still needed. Pat Spencer is arranging volunteers. There will be a cocktail party on Wednesday night and men are invited. Players can register, raffle tickets will be sold. Tee prize jackets are in Marks office for color and size selection. June 1 may be the deadline for ordering. Sign up sheet in ladies locker room for selection.

Handicap Tournament Update

Sign-up sheet is circulating for this tournament.

Mini Invitational

Food and prizes are in place.

Guest Day

Next guest days are April 20 and May 25. Pat Collins and Ann Gemmer are handling.

Home and Home

Scheduled for April 27. Sign-up sheet will be posted soon.

Standing Rule Change

Removal of the W omen’s Western Golf Association pin from the standing rules was approved by vote.

Ace Day

Separate cards are not required for Ace Day. Standing rule states that only games that are posted as T score require separate cards. It is important, however, that the cards be filled out completely with first name, last name, net score, date attested, handicap.

OTHER BUSINESS

Unofficial Guest Day

Per Pat Collins, play was much too slow. Suggestions were made to have a friendly, organized game that day to try to speed up play.

Meeting was adjourned at 3:00.

Respectfully Submitted,

Lynne Waslohn, Secretary
