NEWS FLASH

Art Club meeting today in room 32 at lunch. - Nelson

Hey guys there's an Interact meeting today at lunch at 12:15, we will be taking pictures, see you there. – Davis

We have no formal plans for Halloween this Wednesday. If you choose to dress up, please remember the following:

1. NO masks or weapons are to be worn
2. ALL outfits MUST be school appropriate and follow the dress code.

Hey Spanish Club! Come to room 123 today at noon for a Spanish Club meeting. The car wash was a success! Now let's get the T-shirt design finalized so we can place an order. Bring your $11.50 as soon as possible. See you today at lunch! (---Gittings)

HEY YTOTers! Don't forget, we are NOT meeting tomorrow night, because it is Halloween, but remember to have a fun, safe night. Our next meeting will be NEXT Wednesday, November the 7th, at the Ulatis Community Center at 7 pm. New members are always welcome to come join in fun, just be ready to have a good time performing and hanging with friends.

Peace Jam meeting today in room 109. Be there. - Dally

There will be a meeting today at lunch in room 103 for members of this year's Golf Team to discuss the November 10th team party. – Baker

Winter Ball is just around the corner. It will be held on December 1st at the Ulatis Community Center. Tickets are $25 a piece and you can start purchasing them November 13th in room 50. So start saving now, because Winter Ball is something you don't want to miss and tickets sell out every year. – Sullivan

Breaking Down the Walls is coming this Wednesday through Friday. We are completely full on Thursday and Friday, but there are limited spaces still available for tomorrow. If you can return your permission slip to the main office or Room 23 before the end of the day today, we might be able to squeeze you in on Wednesday.

To find out whether you're on our list to attend for Wednesday, ask a teacher, or check the notices posted in the office and/or main hallway. Please note that demand for this program was greater than ever this year and we assigned days based on your requests on a first-come, first-serve basis. Not all students received their first choice of days. Rest assured that your time in Breaking Down the Walls will be awesome whichever day you attend. - Alongi

This week's Senior of the Week, nominated by Mr. Kutz, is Melissa Prather because she is a dedicated, reliable, and responsible student. Melissa also brings a personality that enhances and brightens the classroom and is always a positive influence on her peers.

The Student of the Week, nominated by Mr. Cheng, is Emily Denton because she is exceptional in every way. She knows her value, identity, and purpose in life. She does not fall into the social norm and always looks beyond the box.

The Male Athlete of the Week is football player Ryan Prescott because he comes to practice every day knowing he has a responsibility to make our program better. An unselfish individual who will do anything to help our team achieve, Ryan has accepted his role and has become a well-respected leader among his coaches and peers.

The Female Athlete of the Week is Mandi Geist because she recently exhibited a level of competitive and steadfast play never before seen in her illustrious varsity tennis career, playing three focused sets, which led to her biggest career victory.

WINTER SPORTS PHYSICALS will be given on Saturday, November 3 beginning at 8:30 in Rooms 64 and 65. Physicals will be $15.00, cash only. Orange and white forms are available in the front office or from the coach. This physical is for all students wanting to tryout for Boys and Girls Basketball or Wrestling. - Baclig

Attention all Sophomores! Help raise money for the Sophomore class activities. Come in to room 28 at lunch to pick up snacks to sell this week! - Pratt
