This week's Senior of the Week, nominated by Mr. Kutz, is Melissa Prather because she is a dedicated, reliable, and responsible student. Melissa also brings a personality that enhances and brightens the classroom and is always a positive influence on her peers.

The Student of the Week, nominated by Mr. Cheng, is Emily Denton because she is exceptional in every way. She knows her value, identity, and purpose in life. She does not fall into the social norm and always looks beyond the box.

The Male Athlete of the Week is football player Ryan Prescott because he comes to practice every day knowing he has a responsibility to make our program better. An unselfish individual who will do anything to help our team achieve, Ryan has accepted his role and has become a well-respected leader among his coaches and peers.

The Female Athlete of the Week is Mandi Geist because she recently exhibited a level of competitive and steadfast play never before seen in her illustrious varsity tennis career, playing three focused sets, which led to her biggest career victory.

WINTER SPORTS PHYSICALS will be given on Saturday, November 3 beginning at 8:30 in Rooms 64 and 65. Physicals will be $15.00, cash only. Orange and white forms are available in the front office or from the coach. This physical is for all students wanting to tryout for Boys and Girls Basketball or Wrestling. - Baclig
